

UC Press LECTURE

Instant Recess: MOVING America

Tuesday, November 1, 2011
11:15 a.m. • HSS 165

Dr. Antronette Yancey

Professor in the Department of Health Services at the UCLA School of Public Health, co-director of the UCLA Kaiser Permanente Center for Health Equity, and recently appointed member of the Board of the Partnership for a Healthier America—the nonprofit organization supporting First Lady Michelle Obama’s “Let’s Move” campaign—will discuss her research findings in chronic disease prevention with emphasis on intervention in underserved communities. A booksigning follows, and books will be available for purchase.

THE SMC ASSOCIATES AND UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS

SMC Associates is a community-based support group that brings outstanding professionals and special events to SMC to stimulate student excellence. Associates members receive invitations to special activities and advance notice of lectures by world-class guest speakers. Yearly membership of $100 or more is entirely tax-deductible. Please visit the SMC Associates website (www.smc.edu/associates) for details.

The Fall 2011 SMC Associates lecture is presented in collaboration with the University of California Press, one of the largest, most distinguished, and most adventurous nonprofit publishers active today, issuing books and journals in the humanities, social sciences, and life sciences. UC Press is supported, in part, by philanthropic gifts from foundations and individuals, who receive a range of benefits in recognition of their generosity. For information about the lectures, please call (310) 434-4303.
